

From Poverty to Opportunity

GROUNDSWELL MURAL commissioned by DYCD. To learn more, go to: GROUNDSWELLMURAL.ORG

SAVE THE DATE

TUESDAY • 8 | 12 | 14

Guest Speakers • Workshops • Panel Discussions

50 years ago President Lyndon Johnson launched the War on Poverty. This Symposium recognizes the 50th Anniversary of the Economic Opportunity Act, and highlights anti-poverty strategies funded by the Department of Youth and Community Development (DYCD) via federal Community Services Block Grant funding. Topics will include: Retaining and Engaging High School Youth in Afterschool Programs; Engaging Immigrant Parents in School Retention; Increasing Digital Literacy; Promoting Healthy Behaviors through Fatherhood Programs; Creating Supportive Work Experiences for Disconnected Youth; Promoting Access to Health Care in Hard to Reach Communities and Preventing Human Trafficking in New York City.

New York Law School
185 West Broadway, New York, New York 10013

Tuesday, August 12, 2014
8:30 AM - 5:00 PM

Bill de Blasio
Mayor

Department of Youth & Community Development

Bill Chong
Commissioner

NEW YORK LAW SCHOOL

We look forward to having you join us!

For more information about DYCD, please visit www.nyc.gov/dycd