For the Week of April 24, 2017

2016-17 Issue 33

Thought for the week: "What we do for ourselves dies with us. What we do for others and the world remains and is immortal."

~Albert Pike

The Week in Review:

- Over the Easter break, our SLS Brownie Troop, including Kate R., Maddie S., Elise M., and Allie R., took some time to weed and replant the small garden at the back entrance to the school. We are so grateful to the girls and their parents for taking time to beautify our campus!
- Thank you for the prayers and support of the Bleidt and Schwantes families as well as the 4th grade class during this difficult time. Please continue to keep all in your prayers. If anyone from the school community would like to contribute to a fund for the Schwantes girls, checks can be made to the 'Kari & Layla Fund' at King Southern Bank 3400 Dutchman's Lane Louisville, KY 40205. Debit/Credit card donations can be made via phone per Ashley Spears w/ King Southern Bank at (502) 357-2265.
- Our school and parish staffs met with Fr. BJ and our upcoming new pastor Fr. Meiman during our Thursday staff meeting. We are excited that Fr. Meiman will be supportive of our continued direction to grow and become the best school that we can possibly be. We'll soon be planning our celebration of Fr. BJ to express our gratitude for his many years of support and guidance. Please watch for information in upcoming emails and newsletters.
