

The Archdiocese of Hartford
Catholic Biblical School and Office for Catholic Social Justice Ministry present

Bringing Laudato Si to Life During the Christmas Season and Beyond

- ◆ Sunday, December 4, 2016, 1:30-4:00 pm
- ◆ Archdiocesan Center at St. Thomas Seminary
- ◆ Fair Trade "Coffee And" beginning at 1:00 pm

Drawing on a Bible-based spirituality and the Hebrew concept of Tikkun Olam (healing/repairing the world), Sr. Ruth Rosenbaum, Executive Director of CREA* will lead us in an afternoon of exploring how we can live up to the challenges presented by Pope Francis' encyclical letter, Laudato Si.

Our Christmas preparations offer the perfect opportunity to think about how our own actions and life patterns contribute to (or detract from) the healthy life of our common home, the earth. We will explore such questions as, "Who benefits" from our current life practices? "Who is left behind?"

Detail: The Nativity, St. Thomas Seminary Chapel

For more information, call 860-242-5573 and ask for either the Office of Catholic Social Justice Ministries or the Catholic Biblical School. To register online, click here: <https://goo.gl/forms/4TVsGuu8vCHBTuGl2>. Or, if you do not have internet access, contact Jill Costa or BJ Daly Horell in the Office of Education, Evangelization and Catechesis at 860-242-5573.

* Center for Reflection, Education and Action, Hartford, CT.

