These sessions will be offered virtually, you will be sent detailed information on session offerings and additional resources

Join the Laboratory to Combat Human Trafficking in collaboration with Colorado CASA for an important training on how human trafficking is impacting our state and region. Learn how the experiences of youth in the child welfare system may intersect with the trafficking experience and how service providers like CASA advocates can be involved in the response.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- Court appointed special advocates - CASA - staff and volunteers
- Anyone working with systems-involved youth

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN:

- How to identify human trafficking situations and potential victims (including mandatory reporting)
- How communities across Colorado are responding to human trafficking
- How to connect to local anti-trafficking and victim support resources and develop protocols

The Laboratory to Combat Human Trafficking (combathumantrafficking.org) is a leader in Colorado's anti-trafficking movement. Since 2005, we have trained over 65,000 professionals and community members; conducted research to drive action and inform policy change; operated the statewide 24/7 human trafficking hotline; and developed over 200 future human rights leaders.
